Weeks 1 and 2 - Grammar

The partitive article:

Normally to talk about a noun we use:

Un/le (a/the) to talk about masculine nouns

Une/la (a/the) to talk about feminine nouns

Des/les (some/the) to talk about plural nouns

However, when we talk about what we eat and drink we use the 'partitive article'. This is du for masculine nouns, de la for feminine nouns and des for plural nouns. Before a vowel we use 'de l''. For example:

Je mange du pain => I eat (some) bread

Je mange de la confiture => I eat (some) jam

Je mange des céréales => I eat (some) cereal

Je mange de l'entrecôte => I eat (some) steak

Weeks 3 and 4 - Grammar

Negatives:

To say 'not/don't' or 'never' in French you need to use a negative. In French, negatives go around the verb:

Je mange = I eat

Je ne mange pas = I don't eat

Je ne mange jamais = I never eat

When you use a negative, you should replace the partitive article (du/de la/des) with de:

Je ne mange pas de viande = I don't eat meat

Je ne mange jamais de poisson = I never eat fish

Weeks 5 and 6 - Grammar

The verb 'boire'

The verb 'to drink' (boire) is an IRREGULAR verb.

This means, like 'avoir' (to have) and 'être' (to be), you just have to learn its pattern by heart.

Boire to drink

je bois I drink

tu bois you drink

il/elle boit he/she drinks

nous buvons we drink

vous buvez you (plural) drink

ils/elles boivent they drink
