Weeks 1 and 2 - Grammar

Hay

"Hay" is a very useful word in Spanish which means "There is" or "There are".

It is very important to pronounce this word correctly, think of the word "eye" in English.

En mi pueblo, hay una piscina.
In my town, there is a swimming pool.

En mi pueblo, hay tiendas.
In my town, there are shops.

En mi pueblo, no hay museo.
In my town, there isn't a museum.

Weeks 3 and 4 - Grammar

Se puede

"Se puede" is an expression used to mean "you can".

"Se puede" is always followed by a verb in the infinitive (the 'to' part of the verb that you find in the dictionary).
Infinitives always end en -ar/-er/ir.

For example:

Se puede ver una película en el cine.
You can watch a film at the cinema.

Se puede comer en un restaurante.
You can eat at a restaurant.

No se puede ir al parque.
You can't go to the park.
